August 2009 From The East

Brothers and Friends of Henry Lodge,

The July 4th CHILD ID during the Fairfax parade was a great success. Thank you to Fairfax Assembly #3 Rainbow Girls and Hope Chapter #73 OES for their support. The large group of workers made life easier for all.

The road trip to MAHOVA in Richmond was also a great success. The residence really appreciated the “boomboxes” we took down to them. We will be doing another trip in October for the MAHOVA Family Day on 10 October. Plans are being made now for the donation drive for that trip. Stay tuned for details.

I would like to thank the Brethren for their support to purchase new chairs for the Lodge room. (They have been ordered and should arrive for the September or October meeting.) Three different styles were selected and most have had donations pledged for their purchase. There are still a couple of stationed officer and a few appointed officer chairs available for a donation. Please contact me for the current availability status. Each chair being donated will have a plaque stating who made the donation and to whom dedicated. In answer to requests by the Brethren, we will have a silent auction for the current lodge chairs. Brother Mujica is in charge of this and details will be announced soon.

Due to scheduling problems and other issues, the attending of a Potomac Nationals game is being cancelled.

The Canaday Scholarship will be awarded after dinner and before our stated communication on 11 August. Following the award ceremony, we will have a short program by our Lodge Education Officer and then retire to the Lodge room for our meeting at 7:30 PM. The meeting will be “Polo-shirt” dress and all members are encouraged to wear their Henry Lodge polo shirt.

Please refer to the on-line calendar for the most current Henry Lodge activities listing. See you in Lodge.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,
Harold

From The Secretary's Desk

My Brethren:

“No vehicle of thought has had so many “hitch-hikers” aboard as has the literature of Freemasonry, many having distorted its history or added grotesque themes to its simple, ethical, and moral doctrine.”

Henry Wilson Coil 33^o

Fraternally,

Ralph W. Smith, Jr., P.M.
Secretary

August 2009 From The South

First, I would like to thank the Worshipful Master for giving me this chance to officially/publicly thank The 2009 Julianne Canaday Memorial Scholarship Committee. Most Worshipful Ed Cohen, Worshipful Ralph Smith and Worshipful Lynn Boerger worked hard and reviewed the information from the candidates. They were able to select the winner at the last stated meeting. Second, I would like to congratulate the winner, Ms. Cassandra Dominicis. The Scholarship will be awarded at 7:00PM on August 11, 2009 at the Henry Lodge No. 57 Masonic Hall.
