October 2009 From The East

Brothers and Friends of Henry Lodge,

I would like to thank the Brethren for their support to purchase new chairs for the Lodge room. They have arrived and will be used for the first time at the October meeting. I must remind those donating for a chair to make their payment promptly. (We have a waiting list of those wanting to donate.) Each donor needs to start thinking of what they want on their chair's dedication plate. We will be contacting you with letter count limits and getting your exact wording and spelling.

The silent auction is currently underway for the existing Lodge chairs. The auction sheets are in the social hall. The winning bidders will be announced at 7:00 PM on 12 October. See the auction rules posted by the sheets for further details.

Henry Lodge will be making a fraternal visit to The Wilderness Lodge on 8 October hosted by Mt. Jackson Lodge #103, being held in Edinburg, VA. We will be carpooling and leaving Henry Lodge at 3:30 PM to make the dinner beginning at 6:00 PM. Attendees need to remember to bring a lawn chair, jacket, rain gear, and a flashlight.

As many of you have heard, the Fairfax Assembly #3 Rainbow Girls sponsored by Henry Lodge is doing a book collection drive for MAHOVA. The books will be presented to the library during MAHOVA Family Day on 10 October. Those wishing to support the girls by donating books (new or gently used – audio or print) can contact Clarissa Jones (703.724.0675) or myself (703.278.0119) to arrange pickup. Or, you can take them to the MAHOVA Family Day event and drop them off at the MAHOVA Library. Please inform the librarian you are supporting the Fairfax Assembly MAHOVA book drive. Note: Rainbow is a 501(c)(3) charity and we can provide a receipt of goods for tax purposes.

Henry Lodge will have MAHOVA Family Day carpools leaving the Lodge at 7:00 AM on 10 October. Please contact me if you desire to attend and need assistance arranging transportation to the event.

The November trip to New York City for Masons and their wives has been cancelled due to lack of interest.

Please refer to the on-line calendar for the most current Henry Lodge activities listing. See you in Lodge.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,
Harold

From The Secretary's Desk

Duty Is Not Complete

We have made them Masons according to our Ritual, but we must now pause and ask ourselves if this ends our duties toward them. Have we made them Masons at heart? Have we caused them, by the sublime philosophy that is part and parcel of Masonry to set a higher estimate upon themselves? Have we prepared them to go forth into the world and let the light of Truth, Morality, and Brotherly Love shine from their lives? These are some of the questions which we must ask ourselves.

The education of every new member who stands at our doors must be an ideal toward which we must strive and an obligation which we must seek to fulfill.
